Before completing the form:

To apply to the NUI for a language exemption (Irish and/or Third Language), you need to submit a completed Exemption Application Form and other relevant material. NUI strongly advises that you read the following two documents: NUI booklet ‘Matriculation Regulations: Minimum Academic Entry and Registration Requirements’ (www.nui.ie/college/entry-requirements.asp). Hard copies are also available by contacting NUI. NUI’s Data Protection policy (www.nui.ie/about/data-protection.asp). NUI has a legal obligation to set matriculation requirements on behalf of NUI universities and colleges. By submitting the exemption application form, a candidate is consenting to NUI processing their personal data and sharing the exemption decision with CAO.

Completing the form:

- There are seven sections in the Exemption Application Form.
- All applicants are required to complete Section A and one other section of the form.
- See below to find out which one of the other sections is relevant to you.
- Complete the two sections that are relevant to you and send them to us along with the required supporting documentation (this will depend on the section, see below for details).

Section B should be accompanied by a copy of your birth certificate.

Section B – for exemption from Irish only (Birth outside of Ireland)

This section applies to candidates born outside the Republic of Ireland (26 counties) but who are living and being educated in the Republic.

Section C should be signed by the principal of your school.

Section C – for exemption from Irish only (Educated outside of Ireland)

For candidates born in the Republic of Ireland (26 counties) but whose primary education up to the age of 12 was outside of the Republic or who have spent at least three continuous years outside the Republic (primary and post-primary education combined).

Section D should be signed by the principal of your current school and accompanied by a copy of your DES Certificate and a copy of the relevant professional psychologist’s report.

Section D – for exemption from Irish and/or Third Language (SLD – DES Cert)

This section applies to candidates who have been exempted from the study of Irish because of a Specific Learning Disability (SLD) affecting basic language skills and have a Department of Education and Skills Certificate of Exemption from the Study of Irish.

Section E should be signed by the principal of your school and accompanied by an NUI Professional Psychologist’s Certification Form and a copy of the professional psychologist’s report.

Section E – for exemption from Irish and/or Third Language (SLD – no Cert)

This section applies to candidates who have a Specific Learning Disability (SLD) affecting basic language skills but have not been granted an exemption from the study of Irish by the Department of Education and Skills.

Section F should be signed by the principal of your school and accompanied by a copy of the relevant professional’s report.

Section F – for exemption from Irish and/or Third Language (Other Disability)

For candidates with hearing or other disabilities.

Section G should be accompanied by a copy of a professional psychologist’s report.

Section G – for exemption from Third Language (SLD – Education in the UK)

For candidates presenting A/AS level and GCSE results for matriculation and seeking exemption from the Third language requirement on the basis of a specific learning difficulty.

All applicants must complete Section A.

Please write in block capitals.
Email us at the address above if any of your contact details change.

Your email address may be used to contact you in relation to this application, please provide one that is regularly monitored.

*If CAO number is unknown, please state year of CAO application.

(If different.)

Application Forms for current year applicants should be submitted to NUI by 20 July. Exemption records received by NUI after 20 July will be processed and transferred to the CAO but may not be in time to be included in the student's CAO record before First Round Offers. That could affect what, if any, offer a student receives.

Section B – Exemption from Irish only (Born outside Ireland)

If you were born outside of Ireland, complete Sections A and B and return with a copy of your birth certificate. You do not need to have the principal of your school complete any declarations.

For candidates born outside the Republic of Ireland (but who are living in the Republic of Ireland).

- Candidates born outside the Republic of Ireland (26 counties), and who are being educated within the Republic of Ireland, must complete Sections A and B of the Exemption Application Form and send this to NUI with a copy of their birth certificate for verification.
(Those born in NI or Great Britain, who are presenting GCSEs and who do not have a Republic of Ireland address do not need to apply as exemptions are granted automatically.)

Exemption under this regulation can be granted only from Irish.

- I enclose a copy of my birth certificate.
- I intend to present Irish as a Leaving Certificate subject to fulfil the requirement to present a language other than English.

Section C – Exemption from Irish only (Educated outside Ireland)

If you have had three or more years of education (primary and post-primary combined), complete Sections A and C and have the principal of your school sign the declaration below.

For candidates born in the Republic of Ireland (26 counties) but:

- whose primary education up to the age of twelve years was outside the Republic of Ireland (26 counties); or
- who, in the course of their primary and post-primary education combined, spent at least three continuous years outside the Republic of Ireland (26 counties).

Exemption under this regulation can be granted only from Irish.
